ABOUT US

Founded in 2007 due to the alarming rate that York Region was growing as a regional municipality. YENYR has grown and reached out to youth in Markham making a positive, direct impact in our community.

We are a non-profit organization focused on providing opportunities and tools to inspire the young people in York Region.

Our goal is to tackle environmental issues and promote action from the youth in our community.

- EQUINOX -

Equinox is an art competition that encourages youth to think critically about the environment. This event allows youth to share their creative work while also creating discussion for important environmental issues.
